Am

How did Camus really die that night?

E

Am

Were they right? When he died was it really his time, or was it suicide?

Am

And Holden Caulfield is a friend of mine

E

Am

We go drinking from time to time, and I find it gets harder every time.

Horn Part

Chorus

Am C

Back Off!

G F

You re out on the street again

Am C

Don t you stop!

G F

Did you know you couldn t swim?

Am C

Back Off!

G F

You re out on the street again

Am E

I m not going to play if there ain t no way I ll win!

Horn Part A

Am E Am

Am

Hemingway never seemed to mind the banalities of a normal life

E Am

and I find, it gets harder every time

Chorus

Am C

Back Off!

G F

You re out on the street again

Am C

Don t you stop!

G F

Did you know you couldn t swim?

Am C

Back Off!

G F

You re out on the street again

Am E E

I m not going to play if there ain t no way I ll win!

Am C

Hey there Salinger, what did you do?

G Am

Just when the world was looking at you

Am C

To write anything that meant anything,

G Am
 You told us you were through
Am C
 And itâ€™s been years since you passed away,
G Am
 But I see no plaque, and I see no grave
Am C G Am
 And I canâ€™t help believing you wanted it that way

Am C
 And Vincent Van Gogh, why do you weep?
G Am
 You were on your way to heaven but the road was steep
Am C
 And who was there to break your fall?
G Am
 Weâ€™re guilty, one and all
Am C
 And I donâ€™t know much, but I do know this:
G Am
 With a golden heart comes a rebel fist
Am C G Am
 But I can t help agreeing with those that would not quit

Verse

Am
 And it makes me sick when I think of it
Am
 All my heroes that could not live with this
E
 and I hope you rest in peace
Am
 Because with us, You never did!
Am
 And K.D.C., you were much too young!
Am
 And you changed my life!
 But I draw the line at suicide!
