Hey there Salinger, what did you do?

F Gm

Just when the world was looking at you

Gm Bb

To write anything that meant anything,

F Gm
 You told us you were through
Gm Bb
 And itâ€™s been years since you passed away,
F Gm
 But I see no plaque, and I see no grave
Gm Bb F Gm
 And I canâ€™t help believing you wanted it that way

Gm Bb
 And Vincent Van Gogh, why do you weep?
F Gm
 You were on your way to heaven but the road was steep
Gm Bb
 And who was there to break your fall?
F Gm
 Weâ€™re guilty, one and all
Gm Bb
 And I donâ€™t know much, but I do know this:
F Gm
 With a golden heart comes a rebel fist
Gm Bb F Gm
 But I can t help agreeing with those that would not quit

*Horn Part*

Verse

Gm
 And it makes me sick when I think of it
Gm
 All my heroes that could not live with this
D
 and I hope you rest in peace
Gm
 Because with us, You never did!
Gm
 And K.D.C., you were much too young!
Gm
 And you changed my life!
 But I draw the line at suicide!
