F# G#m

Just when the world was looking at you

G#m B

To write anything that meant anything,

F# G#m
 You told us you were through
G#m B
 And itâ€™s been years since you passed away,
F# G#m
 But I see no plaque, and I see no grave
G#m B F# G#m
 And I canâ€™t help believing you wanted it that way

G#m B
 And Vincent Van Gogh, why do you weep?
F# G#m
 You were on your way to heaven but the road was steep
G#m B
 And who was there to break your fall?
F# G#m
 Weâ€™re guilty, one and all
G#m B
 And I donâ€™t know much, but I do know this:
F# G#m
 With a golden heart comes a rebel fist
G#m B F# G#m
 But I can't help agreeing with those that would not quit

Verse

G#m
 And it makes me sick when I think of it
G#m
 All my heroes that could not live with this and I hope you rest in peace

 And K.D.C., you were much too young!
G#m
 And you changed my life!
Eb
 But I draw the line at suicide!
