

The Hands That Thieve
Toh Kay

G Gb Em

I felt no guilt ~till I was caught, and I was told that I was guilty

C G D

And even then I wasn't really sure, yeah yeah

C G D Em

That the thing I felt was guilt itself, or maybe it was something else

C D

Frustration at the fact that I was ever caught at all

G Gb Em

I told a lie, that multiplied, by the time I realized it

C G D

I'd given up everything I'd ever loved, yeah yeah

C G

~Cuz the thing you lack, when you're looking back

D Em

is the pressure you feel that you have to act

C D

That everything is clearer when you're looking at the past, oh no.

INTERLUDE

(Em, C, G, D) x 2

C

And I don't care if I lose,

G

because my heroes did too.

D

I shouted "Court should be adjourned,

Em (C)

because the jury are fools.

G

D

(C)

And the judge can't decipher his left from his right, or his right from his wrong.

C

G

D

And I will bite the hand that thieves, I will not turn the other cheek

Em

(C)

This is no threat, it is a promise I will keep.

C

G

D

So what's the point in pretending, when we've seen behind the curtain

D

And there's nothin' much to see, oh yeah

(NEXT VERSE/CHORUS IS SAME PATTERN CBA)

....

C

I won't forget,

G

the things you said,

D

when I was down,

Em

and I was tired of it.

G

The words you spoke,

D

They brought me hope...

C

When it was time to fight,

D

We chose a side,

Em

C

But everyone knew that something didn't feel right.

G

So we stood our ground,

D

And waited for a sign.....
