Versel

G G2 D G C
We lost ourselves that afternoon.
G G2 D G
You Juliet and me Romeo.
C G
In the shade from the sun,
C G
Where that old apple tree hung,
C G
Irresponsibly young,
D G
We let go.

Verse2 (All verses the same)

We talked about our families.
Shared dreams and insecurities.
Then from under our shells,
In a passionate swell,
Both our barriers fell,
And we let go.

Chorus:

C D G
Into the black of the evening,
C D Am
Under the spread of the stars,
C G

I was falling for you,
 C G
Like the sun did the moon.
 C G D G
I remember that day in Verona.

Verse 3

We watched the world from our air balloon.
We d sailed so high, so young, so soon.
Holding onto the mast,
Gaining altitude fast,
Watching dreams that we d cast all come true.

Into the black of the evening,
Under the spread of the stars,
I was falling for you,
Like the sun did the moon.
I remember that day in Verona.

Oh so here I sit, and I reminisce,
Of that afternoon when our lips first kissed.
Drinking Italian wine,
In that sweet hot summertime,
When you said you d be mine forever.

Into the black of the evening,
Both under the spread of the stars,
I was falling for you,
Like the sun did the moon.
I remember that day in Verona.

In Verona.
Verona.
My Verona.
