

The Windmill Song

Tom Curtain

G

Steve was sippinâ€™ tea by the kitchen sink

C

Said weâ€™d better check that windmill when we finish our drinks

D

Itâ€™s probably stopped pumpinâ€™ since the storm went through

C

D

G

And I bet ya thereâ€™s a heap of work to do

N.C.

When Steve and Dan rode down they found

C

The windmillâ€™s tail crumpled on the ground

D

The storm had really twisted some fans about

C

D

G

They got to work to straighten that windmill out

N.C.

When they finished patchinâ€™ that windmill up

C

Steve let out a laugh and he put down his cup

D

Said â€œI bet you fifty bucks you canâ€™t swing from the fanâ€•

C

D

G

Dan said â€œFor fifty bucks I bet you I canâ€•

N.C.

Dan climbed on everythinâ€™ was roses

C

When a big wind blew he yelled â€œholy Mosesâ€•

D

The wind began to spin the fan so fast

C

D

G

That the ground was a blur as the world spun past

[Chorus]

Em

C

G

There was crazy Dan swinginâ€™ from the fan

D

Sixty feet high in the sky

Em

C

G

When a big wind blew well it really flew

C

D

G

Spinninâ€™ round and a round and around like a merry go round

N.C.

Dan's knuckles were white as he clung to the fan

C

Had his cheeks pushed back like a freakshow man

D

He screamed "Steve, shut this bastard down".

N.C.

When Steve finally shut that windmill down

C

Dan's brain was a spinnin' when he climbed to the ground

D

Eyes rolled back and his guts in a bind

"I'll have that fifty bucks now, if ya don't mind".

Five years on at a bar in town

C

They laughed at the day Dan was spinnin' around

D

For fifty bucks he said "I don't know why I did it".
