Still Lost

By Tom McRae

Right, to be quite honest there should be no tab for this because it s a plinky piano number and there s no geetar on it... Therefore I ve just put the chord voicings in and am letting you make up your own mind how to arrange it. Yeah, he deviates round the chords and such but because it s on piano it s really hard to write them all down.

Yeah not the best I'm afraid but when there's no guitar on it, what's a man to do... Any banter (though no women drivers please) to ihateibiza@hotmail.com
