D A G D

D
What if birds,
A
fell in love like we do?
G
the skies would be empty,
D
made of invisible winds.

D
What if fish,
A
found they had emotions?
G
and suddenly our oceans,
D
would become blinded by things.

G
Theres something to be said,
D
for getting into bed,
and covering your head,
D A G
and wailing for whatever comes your way,
but in the end,
D
when you ve lost all your friends,
they re never coming back.

D
And if I tried,
A
to tell you I loved you,
would you promise to try to,
feel the same way?

D

I know I m not,

A

the only fish in the sea but,

G

if it were just you and me,

D A D

we d take control of the sky.
