Genetics - Tom Milsom

Tabbed by Sam Brown

Tuning: Standard

Sounds best on Uke, though you can play it on anything you like!

Intro: C, F

C F
I knew our plan was doomed right from the start
C F
The human body s made of more than just a heart and though it
Am C
Seemed we d be together for eternity
Am F G
That s a long long way away from how it seemed to be to me
Am F G
It isn t right that we should fight about the way we fit together
Am F G
Just another complication that is standing in our way
Am F G
And you know I love you so and even though we ll make a monster
Am F G
It s a beautiful disaster that s too terrible to simply throw away

C F
Our arteries are red and our veins remain blue
C F
But even so our damaged blood trickles through it s
Am F C
True that all our relatives died from the
Am F C
Blood that trickled round their insides and so far
Am F C
We ve lived our lives thinking everything was fine, not
Am F G
Thinking of the trouble bourne inside us at the time and now we ve
Am F G
Come to find the sum is greater than the parts that make it, this
Am F G
Hereditary sorrow was kept quiet through the years, oh the
Am F G
Grief and the relief our parents felt when we we re healthy new born
Am F G
Babies we don t get; because genetics is a science made of tears.
