

Valium / Come And Gone
Tom Odell

[Intro] Eb Bb Ab
Eb Bb Ab

Eb
I m not trying to be clever
Bb
But you said we d last forever
Ab
Like the birds and bees
Eb
But we re really nothing more
Bb
Than the future that they sold
Ab
In the old movies
Cm
Bullet trains, too late
Ab Eb Fm
Sonic planes flying straight into the sun

Eb
You have come and gone
Ab
Now you re just a number on my telephone
Cm Fm Bb
Just another reason for my valium, oh love
Eb Ab
Was that what you want?

Bb Eb
I found that picture in my pocket
Bb Ab
Should I keep it, should I lock it, right away from you?
Eb
I guess it s just a girl and boy
Bb
Another broken polaroid
Ab
We threw away too soon
Cm
And like a music star
Ab
Your life fell apart
Fm Bb
Tonight singing your song
Eb

You have come and gone

Ab

Now you re just a number on my telephone

Cm

Fm

Bb

Just another reason for my valium, oh love

Eb

Was that what you want?

Eb

Tell me are you feeling bad?

Ab

If you heard this on the radio would it make you sad?

Cm

Fm

Bb

Maybe I should fill it up with pretty words, so wrong

Eb

Bb

You have come and gone

Fm

Cm

Db

Yes, I guess you were the best but that I can t confess

Ab

Unless you want me too

Fm

Cm

Time, it takes a little while

Db

It tells you that you re fine

Bb

Even if it ain t true

Eb

You ve come and gone

Ab

Now you re just another of my saddest songs

Fm

Just another reason for my valium, oh no

Eb

Bb

Was that what you want?

Eb

But tell me are you feeling bad?

Cm

Eb

Ab

If you heard this on the radio would it make you sad?

Cm

Fm

Bb

Maybe I should fill it up with pretty words, so wrong

Cm

Eb F

You have come and gone

Ab

Bbm

Time goes on

Eb

You have come and gone