Magnolia - Tom Petty

Intro: F#m - A

F#m

From a table across the room

A

She was signaling me with her eyes

F#m

I walked over to be introduced

Bm

E

I said hello, she just smiled

F#m

A

And said I know a place not too far from here

F#m

Where we could get away for a while

Bm

E

Yeah, that s when she kissed me and told me her name

Bm

D

I never did tell her mine

E

F#m

Oh Magnolia

I remember the smell of the wind so sweet

F#m

Magnolia

Bm

E

And I know that she s out there somewhere in the world

Bm

E

She s forgotten me but I remember her

F#m

A

Magnolia

F#m

Well her lips were as warm

As that wet southern night

A

Her eyes were as black as the sky

F#m

And I wondered aloud

Just what I had done right

Bm

E

As I lay there with her by my side

F#m

Then she took hold my hand

A

As she looked up at me

F#m

A

And said now I must tell you goodbye

Bm

Yeah there in the moonlight

E

As I watched her leave

Bm

E

I felt a chill down inside

F#m

Oh Magnolia

I remember the smell of the wind so sweet

F#m

Magnolia

Bm

E

And I know that she's out there somewhere in the world

Bm

E

She's forgotten me but I remember her

F#m A

Magnolia

(Hold)

C#m - D - E

F#m - A - F#m

Oh

I remember the smell of the wind so sweet

F#m A F#m

Magnolia

I remember the smell of the wind so sweet

F#m A F#m

Magnolia

Repeat and fade out
