Rainy Day Man Tom Rush Rainy Day Man written by James Taylor Tom Rush Zach Wiesner Tom Rush vocals/acoustic guitar Trevor Veitch guitar Duke Bardwell bass Warren Bernhardt piano Herb Lovelle drums D G E F#m What good is that happy lie G D E D E All you wanted from the start was to cry girl Bm E Α It looks like another fall Е Bm Α Your friends don t seem to help at all Bm E Α When you re feeling kind of cold and small Bm Е Α Call on your rainy day man Bm E Α It does you no good to pretend girl Bm E Δ You ve made a hole that s much too big to mend Α Bm E And it looks like you lose again, my friend Bm E Α So call on your rainy day man F#m E Dmaj7 C#7 Now rainy day man he don t like sunshine Е F#m He don t chase rainbows C#7 Dmaj7 He don t need good times F#m Ε Grey days rolling Dmaj7 C#7 Then you ll see him Bm F#m Empty feeling Bm E Now you need him Bm E Α All those noble thoughts don t belong

Bm Е Α You can t hide the truth with a happy song Bm Е Α And you knew where you stood all along Е Bm Α Call on your rainy day man F#m E Dmaj7 C#7 Now simple pleasures they all evade you F#m E Dmaj7 C#7 Store-bought treasures none can save you F#m E Dmaj7 C#7 Ask for signs to ease the pain Bm F#m Ask again Е Bm Go on and pray for rain E A Bm It looks like another fall Bm E Α Your friends don t seem to help at all Bm Е Α When you re feeling kind of cold and small Е Bm Α Call on your rainy day man From Tom Rush Columbia Records