

The Santa Fe At Midnight
Tom Russell

The Santa Fe at Midnight
by Tom Russell from -borderland-

Tabbed by Milos Protic proticmilos@yahoo.com

capo at 3th fret

(G) Look at that headlight shining trough the (Em) rain
It (C) must be that old Santa Fe freigh(D)train pause (G) Yeah

Verce 1

I`m (G) standing on Salteo Tile on an (Em) old adobe porch
A(C)cross the street the Baptist church, God`s own neon (G) torch
With my baby sleeping safe inside,
I`m the shadow she`s the light.
Now here (C) comes the sound of the (D) Santa Fe at (G) midnight.

Verce 2 same chords as in verce 1

Chorus:

(C) Blowing trough those cotton fields and Cana`nior river (G) breaks past the (Em) shanty towns of (G) old Juarez,
The (C) eagle and the (D) snake
(C) Blowin across West Texas (D) rattling out of (Em) sight
The (C) music of the (D) Santa Fe at (G) midnight, Making (Em) love to the sound of the (D) Santa Fe at (G) midnight.

Verce 3 and 4 same chords than play chorus one more time