I Flew Over Our House Last Night
Written and recorded by Tom T. Hall

C F
That old Kentucky moon was shining bright as day
G7 F C
The stars were twinkling in the milky way
F
The pilot said if you look close there s Frankfort on the right
G7 C
I flew over our house last night

F C
Thirty thousand feet below me you were fast asleep
F C G7
And thirty thousand feet above I almost stopped to weep
C F
So close and yet so far away so wrong and yet so right
G7 C
I flew over our house last night

F
For just one second I thought I was back in town
G7 F C
The man your friends all say has only brought you down
F
The airline hostess asked me sir are you sure that you re alright
G7 C
I flew over our house last night
