```
Martha
Tom Waits
[Intro]
Eb Bb7 Eb Bb7 Cm Bb G# G#
Eb Bb7 Eb Bb7 Cm Bb G# G#
[Verse 1]
Eb Bb7
         \mathbf{E}\mathbf{b}
              Bb7
                          Cm
                               Bb G#
                                           G#
Operator, number please, it s been so many years
        Bb7
               Eb
                    Bb7
                          Cm Bb
                                                G#
Will she remember my old voice while I fight the tears?
                             Eb
      C7
                Fm
                      Bb7
                                          Fm
                                    C7
                                                Bb7
Hello, hello there, is this Martha? This is old Tom Frost
       C7
                 Bb7
             Fm
                               Cm
                                     Bb
And I am calling long distance, don t worry about the cost
                          Bb7 Eb
             C7 Fm
                                                      Bb7
Cause it s been fourty years or more now, Martha, please recall
         C7 Fm Bb7
                           Cm Bb G#
And meet me out for coffee where we ll talk about it all, and [Chorus]
             G# G# Eb Eb
Eb
         Eb
Those were days of roses, of poetry and prose
                    G# G# Fm Bb
 G# Cm
              Cm
And Martha, all I had was you, and all you had was me
Eb Eb G# Eb Eb
There was no tomorrows, we packed away our sorrows
G# Cm Cm G# Bb Eb G# Eb
And we saved them for a rainy day
Eb Bb7 Eb Bb7 Cm Bb G# G#
[Verse 2]
                     Bb7 Cm
        Bb7
               Eb
                                         G#
And I feel so much older now, you re much older too
                   Eb Bb7
Eb
        Bb7
                                               Cm
                                                    Вb
                                                      G#
How s your husband, and how s your kids? You know that I got married too
Eb C7 Fm Bb7
                                         Fm Bb7
                          Eb C7
Lucky that you found someone to make you feel secure
                     Bb7 Cm Bb
     Eb C7 Fm
                                             G# G#
Cause we were all so young and foolish, now we are mature, and [Chorus]
        \mathbf{E}\mathbf{b}
             G#
                     G#
                           Eb Eb
Those were days of roses, of poetry and prose
       Cm Cm G# G# Fm Bb Eb G#
And Martha, all I had was you, and all you had was me
   Eb G#
                G#
                        Eb
                            Eb
```

There was no tomorrows, we packed away our sorrows Cm G# Bb Eb G# Cm And we saved them for a rainy day Eb Bb7 Eb Bb7 Cm Bb G# G# Eb Bb7 Eb Bb7 Cm Bb G# G# [Verse 3] Eb Bb7 Eb Bb7 Bb G# G# CmAnd I was always so impulsive, I guess that I still am Bb7 Eb Bb7 Cm Bb G# And all that really mattered then was that I-- was a man Eb C7 Fm Bb7 Eb C7 Fm Bb7 I guess that our being together was never meant to be Eb C7 Fm Bb7 Cm Bb G# G# Martha, Martha, I love you, can t you see? And [Chorus] G# G# Eb Eb Eb Those were days of roses, of poetry and prose Cm Cm G# G# Fm Bb Eb G# And Martha, all I had was you, and all you had was me G# G# Eb Eb Eb Eb G# There was no tomorrows, we packed away our sorrows G# Bb Eb CmAnd we saved them for a rainy day

Eb Bb7 Eb Bb7 Cm Bb G# G#

[Outro]

Eb Bb7 Eb Bb7 Cm Bb G#
And I remember quiet evenings, trembling close to you