C F C
 Broke down in East St. Louis
 Bb F
 On the Kansas City Line
 C F Am
 Drunk up all my money
 D Bb
 That I borrowed every time
 G C
 And I fell down at the derby
 Bb F
 Night s as black as a crow
 C F C Am
 It was a train took me away from here
 F G C
 But a train can bring me home

Intro:

Let s put a

1st verse:

C#m7 F#7 A7 G#7sus4 G#7
 new coat of paint in this lonesome old town

C#m7 F#7 A7 G#7sus4 G#7
set em up, we ll be knocking em down

C#m7 F#7 A7 G#7sus4
you ll wear a dress, baby, I ll wear a tie

G#7 C#m7 F#7 A7 G#7 C#m7
we laugh at that old bloodshot moon, in that bur - gundy sky _

Coda: Intro 4 times with lots of variations.

2nd verse:

all our scribbled love dreams are lost or trown away
here amidst a shuffle on a overthrowing day our love needs a transfusion, let s shot it full of wine fishing for a good time, start throwing in your line

Repeat 1st verse and then fade away with the intro

I just happened to have these, I didn t and couldn t transcribe them myself...
