[Verse 1]
Am
Save praise for a better man
No need for your touching hands
There s nothing to understand
I m one with the lost and damned
[Refrain]
Dm
It s a long road and you re on your own
Take care of your broken soul
Cause there must be
There must be
[Verse 2]

I ve drink all the remedies
Too young for these memories
Swing low, bitter melodies
False hope from the teeth of the enemy
[Refrain]
It s a long road and you re on your own
Take care of my broken soul
[Chorus]
Cause there must be
```

There must be angels, guiding the way

G

There must be angels, saving our grace
There must be heaven for people who stray
There must be heaven in this hell that I m living

I won t give up
No, don t give up
  Dm
I- Cause there must be angels
There must be angels
There must be heaven in this hell that I m living

Lost hope, keeping dreams afloat
I stand just a man on the tight rope
Got faith but I ll never know
See wings when I look through my telescope
