Don t Call Me Early In The Morning
(Words & music by Tommy Sands)

Chorus:

[C]Donâ€™t call me [G]early in the [F]mor [C]ning
[F]Call me what you [C]want to but [G]leave me alone
[C]Don t call me [G]early in the [F]mor [C]ning
Just [G]leave me till the cows are coming [Am]home

[C]A man or a [G]woman they [F]need the relaxation
From [C]rising always at the [G]dawn
And the [C]heart of the [G]matter, [F]tomorrow is a Saturday
And [C]I ll be lying lying [G]on

Sad the lad that can t rest contented
He has a dollar but must have more
He fills himself with pills to retire with a million
And falls asleep at sixty-four

Fair is fair and I ve done my share
My nerves are gettin on my nerves
If you don t have a pillow of the white swan s feather
We ll do with a corner for my head

Just a gentle warning for tomorrow morning
No big noises near my room
Cars with no exhausts, chickens with the whooping cough
And milkmen that whistle out of tune
