

Yesterday

Toni Braxton

C#m A
I gave you the benefit of the doubt
E
Til you showed me what you were about
B
Your true colors came out

C#m A
And your words couldn't hide the sin
E
Cause the truth about where you been
B
Is in a fragrance I can't recognize

C#m
Just standing there, scratching your head
A
Bloodshot eyes, drunk with regret
E B
Hanging yourself ten feet over the edge

C#m A
I'm done with this, feeling like an idiot
E
Loving you, I'm over it
B
I just don't love you, don't love you no more

C#m A
You, you are so yesterday
E
Never thought you'd lose my love this way
B
Now you come begging me to stay

C#m A
See you, you are so yesterday
E
I won't let you rain on my parade
B
I don't wanna hear a thing you say
C#m
You're so yesterday

A
Funny now how I'm gone

The little light in your head came on

B

?Now you realize it s all your fault, ooo, ooo

C#m

A

Don t you wish you had a time machine?

F?

That way you could change history

C?

That s the only way that you could be with me

C#m

Just standing there, scratching your head

A

Bloodshot eyes, drunk with regret

E

B

Hanging yourself ten feet over the edge

E

It started with a little kiss

B

A
