Dont Wish Tonight Alive

CAPO 3

Bm
Though nothing's changed on my end Yet you think I'll just give in I know the game, I've been there Come back and claim that I didn t care
You say it's always been you We both know that's far from the truth
I know it's cold and lonely
But I'm not your one and only
Bm
I won't be the one you call when everyone is gone And when you treat her wrong don't wish that she was me
Now that I moved along it's clear we don't belong This is your last song, don't wish that she was me
Bm
I always wished you well
I always tried to let you down slowly I cared enough but you just kept going Α
Bm
I, I always gave you time
G
D

I did everything right but it just wasn't enough No, you just kept on pushing
I won't be the one you
gone And when you treat her
wrong don't wish that she was me
Now that I moved
song, don't wish that \mathbf{Bm}
Would fall apart or break your heart Make it easier to tear her world apart Cause I ve started to come accustomed to Reminding you that we re way past through I don't wanna do this honestly, do you?
I didn't know what love was then So how can you say that nothing has changed? And you still regret letting go of me that day You didn't know what love What love was then so this is your last
song
