

Polk Salad Annie
Tony Joe White

[Verse]

E
Down in Louisiana
E
Where the alligators grow so mean
E
Lived a girl that I swear to the world
E
Made the alligators look tame

[Chorus]

N.C. A A7
Polk salad Annie
E
Gators got your granny
G A
Everybody said it was a shame
G A E
For the mama was working on the chain-gang
E
What a mean, vicious woman

[Verse]

E
Everyday before suppertime
E E7
She d go down by the truck patch
E
And pick her a mess of Polk salad
E
And carry it home in a tote sack

[Chorus]

N.C. A
Polk salad Annie
E
Gators got you granny
G A
Everybody said it was a shame
G A E
Cause the mama was working on the chain-gang
E
Whoo, how wretched, dispiteful, straight-razor totin woman,

[Bridge]

E E7
Sock a little Polk salad to him

E

Yeah, you know what, yeah, yeah

[Outro]

E

Her daddy was a lazy and a no-count

E

Claimed he had a bad back

E

All her brothers were fit for

E

Was stealing watermelons out of my truck