

Steamy Windows

Tony Joe White

[Verse]

E

I was thinking about parking the other night

G A E

We was out on a back road

E

Me and my woman was just gettin right

G A E

All systems on overload

E

The radio blasting in the front seat

G A E

Turning out the music fine

E

We was snuggled up in the back seat

G A E

Making up for lost time

[Chorus]

E D A E

Steamy windows -- zero visibility

E D A E

Steamy windows -- coming from the body heat

[Verse]

E

You can wine and dine with a woman all night

G A E

With good intent

E

But there s soemthing about a confrontation on a back road

G A E

Breaks down the defense

[Chorus]

E D A E

Steamy windows -- zero visibility

E D A E

Steamy windows -- coming from the body heat

[Instrumental]

E

G A E

E

G A E

[Verse]

E

There s a sound outside the front door

G

A

E

And I know it s just the wind

E

But it makes her snuggle up just a little bit closer

G

A

E

And it starts things happening again

[Chorus]

E

D

A

E

Steamy windows -- ain t nobody can see

E

D

A

E

Steamy windows -- coming from the body heat

E

D

A

E

Steamy windows -- zero visibility

E

D

A

E

Steamy windows -- coming from the body heat

E

Steamy windows

E

Steamy windows