Dark Corner

Tony Sly - Dark Corner
Wrote this when I was 39
Still in my head but out of mind
But there is something inside I cant resolve
A portrait of a perfect life
Two lovely kids, a loving wife
                                 G#
A servant to the things I cant control
                        E
In this heart there is a dark corner
With a space for everyone
I give it all and try until my river is dry
But i feel like less when everyone moves on
I wonder if Ive spent my days
Trapped in an adolescent cage
                                G#
Just pondering the future of us all?
C#m
Stated opinion, given back
The best that I can, stay on track
For most of it I cant remember
G#
Where we took the fall?
In this heart there is a dark corner
With a space for everyone
I give it all and try until my river is dry
But I feel like less when everyone moves on
Yes I feel like less when everyone moves on
