Kind of a short one, but itâ€™s fun to play. Good one to sing to your love I guess. :D

Verse1
Bm                            A    G            D          A
Iâ€™m sorry that it took so long to write this song, but I gave up
Bm                            A    G            D              F#
You see one million words canâ€™t describe how it feels, to know youâ€™re love
F#             G               A
Where did I go wrong? I should have told you from the start
       F#                           B   A
That Iâ€™m closer than you think when weâ€™re apart
G                            Gm
Nothing that Iâ€™ve tried is as simple as this line

Chorus1
G    D                  Bm                    A          G   Gm
Without you, my life is incomplete, my days are ab-so-lute-ly grey
      D                    Bm                      A
And so I try, to let your heart know for sure that I have so much
          G    A    Bm   G   D   A   Bm
To tell you every single day

Verse2

I swear Iâ€™m giving up my inside to the one, that I adore
I know this world is big enough for you and I, but Iâ€™ll give you more
Iâ€™m coming home today, to wipe the teardrops from your eyes
Iâ€™m totally enamored by your life
Nothing that Iâ€™ve done, has ever been for one

Chorus2

With out you, my life is incomplete, my rights are ab-so-lute-ly wrong
So wake me up, before you leave today, something I need to say
               G    A        D
â€œcause thereâ€™ll be nothing when youâ€™re goneâ€¢

End on "gone"……… Please enjoy :D
