F#

something in my mind

D

clicked as i paint the bathroom blue

G#

words are pouring out

C#

and i don t know if it s the fumes

F#

when you left this morning

D

and i wanted you to stay

G#

decided that the right thing

C#

was to turn and walk away

D

F#

maybe you and i are different

G#

we can t get enough

C#

of this love, sick love

F#

putting out a fire

D

with a flame thrower is strange

G#

acting like we re stranded

C#

when the both of us are saved

F#

learning isn t knowing everything

D

and being right

G#

giving up to me it seems

C#

is better than a fight

D

F#

maybe you and i are different

G#

we just can t get enough

C#

D

F#

some day we will know the difference

G#

we just can t get enough

C#

of this love, sick love
