

Soulmate
Tony Sly

Tuning " Standard (Optional half-step down)

[Intro]

G D Em C (x2)

[Verse 1]

G D
Monday morning you woke up crying
Em C G
The outcome of a stupid line oh-oh
D C
Said by some punk-ass on the street
G D
It wasn't me, it wasn't you
Em C G
It wasn't anybody you knew is it
D C
Your old friend insecurity?

[Refrain]

Am C G D G
The one companion that stuck by your side since you were born

[Bridge]

G D Em C

[Verse 2]

G D
Tuesday night you were in a fight
Em C G
The same old argument black and white
D C
It's something that's eating your inside
G D
It's not the food, it's not the booze
Em C G
It isn't anything consumed so is it
D C
becoming a problem you can't hide?

[Refrain]

Am C G D G
And all those times, you thought that you were wrong - you were right

[Chorus 1]

Em D G Em
The devil on your shoulder gives you strength in paranoia

The countless times you called a few
Your best friend till the end of time
They ll always be there by your side
Solidify conditions you ve abused
What that means you ll never have a clue

[Bridge]

G D Em C/G D C

[Verse 3]

More than just a life long friend
No social life I guess we can pretend
It s not like I care but anyway
You always wanna leave, you never wanna stay
Cause you think if you drink too much then you will lose it
You ll drink your security away

[Refrain]

The one companion that stuck by your side since you were born

[Chorus 2]

The little voice inside your head, annoying and confusing
That somehow tells you what to do
Socially you ve lost your mind and basically you re out of time
You try to build so much it breaks on you
What that means you ll never have a clue

[Bridge]

G D Em C/G D C

[Outro]

What that means you ll never have a
What that means you ll never have a

What that means you ll never have a clue
