Evil Spawn
Tove Lo

```
E                              A
It s not the first time I screwed you over
C#m          A
Why are you back here?
E                        A
I guess that you see something to discover
C#m              A
But there s nothing there
E                     A
You know what I am, and I will let you down.
C#m           A
Still you crave me
E                        A
I m evil spawn then, why do you hang around?
C#m    A
Yeah what s the point of giving me all?

E            A
I brutally broke you down
         C#m                      A
You still got me on your mind, got me on your mind
E              A
I brutally took you down
          C#m                       A
You still want me all the time, want me all the time
E                           A
You put your hand over your chest
                              C#m
Try escape party and the rest,
                           A
The only thing you ve got from me
E                            A
We brave young bleeding broken hearts
                             C#m
So now you re almost torn apart
The only thing you got from me

E                    A
I see it s begging, I m good at lying
C#m            A
But you know that
E                          A
And still you re open, and still you re trying
C#m            A
Try n to get us back
E                              A
```

Back to our first days, yeah I was good to you
C#m   A
Oh I was good to you
E   A
But then I turned back, I m bored to death by you
C#m   A
It s true, what s the point of giving me all?

E   A
I brutally broke you down
          C#m   A
You still got me on your mind, got me on your mind
E   A
I brutally took you down
          C#m   A
You still want me all the time, want me all the time
E   A
You put your hand over your chest
                         C#m
Try escape party and the rest,
The only thing you ve got from me
E   A
We brave young bleeding broken hearts
                          C#m
So now you re almost torn apart
The only thing you got from me

E   A   C#m   A
Still got your heart in my hand, I never get enough
E   A   C#m   A
Still got your heart in my hand, I never get enough

E   A
I brutally broke you down
          C#m   A
You still got me on your mind, got me on your mind
E   A
I brutally took you down
          C#m   A
You still want me all the time, want me all the time
E   A
You put your hand over your chest
                         C#m
Try escape party and the rest,
The only thing you ve got from me
E   A
We brave young bleeding broken hearts
                          C#m
So now you re almost torn apart

The only thing you got from me, me
