

Whether You Fall
Tracy Bonham

I haven't been playing guitar for very long, but heard this song in The L Word and fell in love with it. Gave it a go, if you think there are any mistakes let me know.

Verse 1:

Whether it's the sunshine whether it's the rain
Doesn't make a difference til you complain
Whether it's the water coming in from the roof
Does it piss you off that you're not water proof?

Chorus:

Whether you fall
Means nothing at all
It's whether you get up
It's whether you get up

Verse 2:

And you hate the silence as it fills up the room
And there's not much to say to your blushing groom
Maybe all eyes are on you as you finish the race
And the world sees you struggling for last place
