

As Lonesome As It Gets
Tracy Lawrence

[Intro]

Am F G Am

[Verse]

Am

I ve been sittin here alone in the darkness,

G

With the sound of goodbye ringin in my head.

Am

I don t know how much longer I can, go on like this,

F G Am F G Am

I m about as lonesome as it gets, just about as lonesome as it gets.

[Verse]

Am

For a long time now we ve been, drifting apart,

G

I should have been glad to see you go.

Am

But now that it s over and you re on a silver jet,

F G Am F G Am

I m about as lonesome as it gets, just about as lonesome as it gets.

[Chorus]

F

Am

If it rained straight whiskey, forty days and nights,

C

Am

It wouldn t be enough to numb this hurt I feel.

F

Am

Or keep this lump that s in my throat, from chokin me to death,

C E N.C. Am

I m about as lonesome as it gets, just about as lonesome as it gets.

[Interlude]

[Verse]

Am

When they dig, a six foot hole in the ground,

G

And throw the dirt over me.

Am

Just let these words mark, my final place of rest,

F G Am F G Am

This is as lonesome as it gets, damn sure as lonesome as it gets.

[Chorus]

F Am
If it rained straight whiskey, forty days and nights,
C Am
It wouldn't be enough to numb this hurt I feel.
F Am
Or keep this lump that's in my throat, from choking me to death,
F E N.C. Am
I'm about as lonesome as it gets, just about as lonesome as it gets.

[End]

F G Am F G Am
I'm about as lonesome as it gets, just about as lonesome as it gets.
