Im going to be honest, this one was a little harder to figure out.
But with all bluegrass, there are only a small group of chords that are used for the most part.

Intro:

Am C Am C Am C Am C x2

Am C
Well I told you once I would do it again
Em Am
Why don t you leave while you still can
Am Em Am
All you re back rooms laid this town to waste
Am C
You come in darling nice and slow
Em Am
leave you re shiny little guns on the floor
Am Em Am
Run away with your force fed little world.

Chorus:

C
Go tell it on the mountain
G Am
wont you scream it in my ear
C Em Am
tell me everything I want to hear, hey

(Breakdown)... Get creative.

Am C
Wont you give me a little warning
Em Am

before you tell me that Im the one

C Em Am
There s razor blades behind your pretty smile

Am C
And all your childhood parties

Em Am
They would kill us before the fall

Am Em Am
Run away with everything you know

Chorus

Go tell it on the mountain

G Am
wont you scream it in my ear

C Em Am
tell me everything I wanna hear

Go tell it on the mountain

G Am
wont you scream it in my ear

C Em C
