Silver and Gold - Trampled by Turtles

Tabbed by Mud Duck. Love the Turtles. I also like to play around with D sus and
A sus. Comments or suggestions are welcome. This is my first posting.

[D] [E] [A] [E] [D] [A] [E] [A]

I [A] went down to the [D] Devil
[A] Devil gonna sell my [D] soul
[A] Gonna Come back [D] home, my Little love with my [E] pockets full of Silver and [A] gold

Well youâ€™re out of luck said the devil
I got no silver and gold
The police man he come taken all my land and
He left me in a hole

And Iâ€™m [D] on [E]my [A] own
No [E] place to call my [D] home
[A] Ainâ€™t no pretty gal gonna
[E] waste her time on [A] me

Well, Iâ€™ll give you 20 women
Pretty gals for your soul
Theyâ€™ll love you sweet all the good days of the week
Till your buried and your dead and your cold

Well, I already got me a woman
Thatâ€™s why I look so old
If I go home sheâ€™s gonna leave me on my own â€™Cause I got no silver and gold

Chorus

Interlude

Well I give you a brand new motor car
A motor car for your soul
You can drive all around with a good gal on the town
You can take her right down the road

Well, I donâ€™t want your brand new motor car
A motor car for my soul
I have to bust my ass just to buy a tank of gas
I can drive right down the road

Chorus

Well Iâ€™m on my own
No place to call my home
Ainâ€™t no pretty gal gonna
Waste her time on me

Well Iâ€™m on my own
No place to call my home
Ainâ€™t no pretty gal gonna
Waste her life on me
