

Widowers Heart
Trampled by Turtles

I don't know if it's correct and I'd like your help if you find something wrong. I really love this song and it wasn't up here so I gave it a shot. It sounds like the song to me but if you have any suggestions about it email me because I actually want to learn it. - mattemr@aol.com

G D C G

G D G G
cant help it if I have a widowers heart
G D G C
I tried to get out of bed but I cant seem to start D G D C C
when I hit the road it was freezing and dark
G D C G G
I hope that its warmer wherever you are

G D G G
I said I was sorry and turned to explain
G D G C
the room it was empty and bitter and drained
D G D C
no songs from the angels no blood in my vein
G D C G
could ever replace you and here I remain

C G oh rain
G D C G
come wash me and keep me and take me away

G D G G
New York was a rough place that suited me well
G D G C
you bragged of religion it put me through hell
D G D C
maybe I'm better off maybe its hard to tell G D C G
and I left you asleeping through trumpets and bells

C G
oh rain

G D C G
come wash me and keep me and take me away

G D G G
one moment of peace that would suit me so fine
G D G C
its echos and glimpses of beautiful times
D G D C
im sure its much harder on your end then mine
G D C G
if you ever pass through here im not hard to find

C G
oh rain

G D C G
come wash me and keep me and take me away
