

Back To The Reason Part Ii
Trans-Siberian Orchestra

Capo on 1st Fret

Bm G D A
Time, standing all alone I bled for you, I wanted to Bm G D
A
Each drop, my own Slowly they depart But fall in vain like desert rain
G D
And still they fall on and on and on
D G
Got to get back to a reason
D G
Got to get back to a reason, I once knew
D G
And this late in the seasons
D A
One by one distractions fade from view
Bm G D A
So, drifting through the dark The sympathy of night s mercy
Bm G D
A
Inside my heart Is your life the same Do ghosts cry tears, do they feel years?
G D
As time just goes on and on and on
D G
Got to get back to a reason
D G
Got to get back to a reason, I once knew
D G
And this late in the seasons
D A
One by one, distractions fade from view
D
I m looking for you
G
I m looking for I don t know what
D
I can t see there anymore
G
And all my time s been taken
D
Is this what it seems?
G
Allure of a dream
D
And I m afraid to walk back through that door
G

To find that I've awakened

D

The night seems to care

G

The dreams in the air

A

The snow's coming down

D

It beckons me dare

D

It whispers, it hopes

G

It holds and confides

A

And offers a bridge

D

Across these divides

D

The parts of my life

G

I've tried to forget

A

It's gathered each piece

D

And carefully kept

D

Somewhere in the dark

G

Beyond all the cold

D D G A

There is a child that's part of my soul

D D G A

That's part of my soul

D

G

Got to get back to a reason

D

G

Got to get back to a reason I once knew

D

G

And this late in the seasons

D

A

One by one distractions fade from view

D

The only reason I have left is you
