Back To The Reason Part Ii Trans-Siberian Orchestra

Capo on 1st Fret

BmTime, standing all alone I bled for you, I wanted to BmΑ Each drop, my own Slowly they depart But fall in vain like desert rain And still they fall on and on and on Got to get back to a reason Got to get back to a reason, I once knew And this late in the seasons Α One by one distractions fade from view Α So, drifting through the dark The sympathy of night s mercy Inside my heart Is your life the same Do ghosts cry tears, do they feel years? As time just goes on and on and on G Got to get back to a reason Got to get back to a reason, I once knew And this late in the seasons Α One by one, distractions fade from view I m looking for you I m looking for I don t know what I can t see there anymore G And all my time s been taken Is this what it seems? Allure of a dream

G

And I m afraid to walk back through that door

To find that I ve awakened The night seems to care G The dreams in the air Α The snow s coming down D It beckons me dare D It whispers, it hopes G It holds and confides Α And offers a bridge D Across these divides D The parts of my life G I ve tried to forget Α It s gathered each piece D And carefully kept D Somewhere in the dark G Beyond all the cold DDGA There is a child that s part of my soul DDGA That s part of my soul G Got to get back to a reason G Got to get back to a reason I once knew G And this late in the seasons Α One by one distractions fade from view D

The only reason I have left is you
