Acordesweb.com

Ornament

Trans-Siberian Orchestra

He just drifts behind her

G

My first tab, go easy. Any corrections would be appreciated. There is a youtube video of them doing this song unplugged at a radio station. I wish I could get the tab for that arrangement.

BmF# There is an ornament Lost inside the night F# There on a Christmas tree With a thousand lights No one can see her She s standing all alone BmSomewhere she glistens where no one can see BmI don t believe I can say what had happened BmAll of those words that we put into play BmNo longer matter, I should have known that then D D2 G I just know you re far away D D2 G On this Christmas day D D2 G On this Christmas day On this Christmas... F# BmSomewhere the wind Carves moments in the snow And if he sees her He never lets it show F#

```
Bm
Tinsel and garland are whispered through trees
                                                     Bm
I don t believe I can say what had happened
Em
                                                        Bm
All of those words that we put into play
                                                                Bm
No longer matter, I should have known that then
                                        D D2 G
I just know you re far away
                                D D2 G
On this Christmas day
                               D D2 G
On this Christmas day
On this Christmas...
Come, Christmas
D2
Stay, Christmas
Watch over her this day
Keep her
D2
Protect her
From harm now in every way
Shelter her
D2
Gently
There in your arms she ll be
Until the day
D2
When you
                                          Bm
                                             G
                                                    Bm G Bm
                                                                G A D A
Bring her back home to me
                 F#
There is an ornament lost inside the night
```

Erasing every step