

Promises To Keep
Trans-Siberian Orchestra

This is the version performed by Jennifer Cella at the band s live performances.

I did with just my acoustic guitar and it is my first submission, so please go easy on me!

Use a capo if necessary to guide your voice. I m a girl and I find it comfortable with capo at the 4th fret. It can work just as well on the 3rd or even 5th, depending on voice s capability.

Intro

G D Am C
G D Am C

G D Am C
Christmastime on a cold December morning
G D Am C
All is calm and the world is still asleep
G D Am C
Christmas lights that have been caught without warning
Am C
Gently glitter on
G D
Stars to wish upon
G D G D Am C
All the world is at peace

G D Am D

G D Am C
Christmastime and the year will soon be leaving
G D Am C
Cloaked in time till itâ€™s just a memory
G D Am C
Christmas stays if we donâ€™t forget its meaning
Am C
Days go quickly by
G D
Years they multiply
G D G
And we go searching for thee

Chorus

Em G

And the dream is still alive

C D

From that first December morning

Em G

And it always will survive

C D

As long as we can see

Am C

That the dreams that we find in life

Am D

Are the dreams we tend to seek

Am D G Am

And Christmas has its promises to keep

D

Oh, to keep

Refrain

G D Am C

G D Am C

G D Am C

Am C G D

G D G

Chorus

Em G

And the dream is still alive

C D

From that first December morning

Em G

And it always will survive

C D

As long as we can see

Am C

That the dreams that we find in life

Am D

Are the dreams we tend to seek

Am D

And Christmas has its promises

Am D

Christmas has its promises

Am D G D

Christmas has its promises to keep

Am C

Oh, to keep

G D

To keep

Am D

Ohhhhh ohhhhh

G D Am C
Christmastime and the momentâ€™s just beginning

G D Am C
From that night when we wished upon that star

G D Am C
And if this kindness we feel is just pretending

Am C
If we pretend long enough

G D
Never giving up

G D G D Am C
It just might be who we are

G D Am C

No chords

We are

G
