

No In-Between Transit

I have nowhere to be but I m leaving again
D Dsus2 Em G G
and that s how it s always been.
F#m Em
Alone, in this backyard, scratching away at fences.
D Dsus2 Em G
Never escaping, never mending.
G F#m Em
So enter and exit , recite your scene.
D Dsus2 D/B D/A
That same old song, take a bow and move along
D Dsus2 D/B D/A
and please don t have mercy on a man who flails and folds.
D Dsus2 D/B D/A
That s just how my friend it s always been, its always been.
D Dsus2 Em G
Do you find yourself clinging to straws for something to hold you,
Em G Em
for something to hold you up
G
Move along, just move along is what I ve learned about life.
D Em G
And I ve learned about love, you re either in heaven or you re in hell.
Em G
That boy grew up too fast, his bones were made of glass.
D Em Em
He threw too many stones, leaving him in pieces everywhere.
G
That boy grew up too fast, his bones were made of glass.
D Em
He threw too many stones, He left his pieces everywhere.
G
Now he fails alone. Now he fails alone, left his pieces everywhere.
D Em
Now he fails alone.
G
So enter and exit , recite your scene.
D Dsus2 D/B D/A
That same old song, take a bow and move along.
D Dsus2 D/B D/A
So enter and exit, recite your scene.
D Dsus2 D/B D/A
Your heart always seems in the right place at the wrong time.
D Dsus2 Em Dsus2