 Em7          G5          Csus   A5           Em7
I analyze everything, I know what you mean
             G5         Csus A5          Em7
I answer by questioning all that I need
              G5           Csus
And I want to, to surrender
   A5           Em7                  G5
I want you to see all the sides
          Csus       A5        Em7
All the faces inside of me
```

Pre-chorus
```
Em7 G5         Csus  Em7 G5        Csus     Em7
I see Iâ€™m not perfect, but thatâ€™s all I see

Lost in a portrait, in a picture of me
```

Chorus :
```
Em7             G5           Csus
This canâ€™t be everything I see

That my canvas is incomplete
Em7             G5           Csus
Your colorâ€™s everything to me
         A5
And my canvas will set me free
```

My outline is solid and made up of crime
          G5             Csus     A5          Em7
And the things that you say just burn in my eyes
          G5         Csus
I want to, to surrender
   A5            Em7                 G5
```

I want you to find some comfort
        Csus   A5   Em7
In the spaces between the lines
