I can only find two versions of this song anywhere. There were no lyrics or pre existing versions of this tab that I could find. Feel free to make any suggestions as I m sure I ve missed a few things or may be wrong about a chord or two. Link to the video I used is in the description.
[Intro]
(Variation on G & C chords)
G C
[Verse 1]
He sees a blue eyed dream from across the room
Looking back over his way
Changes his drink from one to two
Trying to think of something to say
Deep breath, here it goes
It's a story everybody knows
[Chorus]
Jack meets Jill one late Friday night
In a hole in the wall low lit kind of dive
Jack asks Jill if she wants to dance
Half buzzed kiss comes after that
Em
Two runners find love fall right in
Give it all they got but in the end
Jack holds on, and Jill lets go
                 C
Now it's just, Jack and Coke

Is sitting where she should be
But no matter how many he throws down
Can't drown that memory
[Chorus]
Jack meets Jill one late Friday night
In a hole in the wall low lit kind of dive
Jack asks Jill if she wants to dance
Half buzzed kiss comes after that
Em
Two runners find love fall right in
Give it all they got but in the end
Jack holds on, and Jill lets go
Now it's just, Jack and Coke
[Bridge]
Over ice
He'll keep em coming, he won't think twice
About stopping, till he's forgotten
[Chorus]
Jack meets Jill one late Friday night
In a hole in the wall low lit kind of dive
Jack asks Jill if she wants to dance
Half buzzed kiss comes after that
Two runners find love fall right in
Give it all they got but in the end
Jack holds on, and Jill lets go
Now it's just, Jack and Coke
Now itâ\in<sup>TM</sup>s just, Jack and Coke
