

Big Chair

Travis

Intro: F#m A D

Now you know that I F#m A D heart

Everything about you

And that s why it s quite hard F#m A D

To get through this alone

You re the only one F#m

A D

I can talk to about it

In my darkest night F#m

A D

I will be on my own

These walls that we climb E

Are hard to recognize D

They fall when I say your name E D

Here we go F#m

Fast and slow A

On the big chair D

But we don t know F#m

Where we re going A

On the big chair D

Don t you know it s hard F#m

A D

Quite

In the time of confusion

F#m A D

To tell you that I love you

F#m

You see it could have been me

A

Instead of you

D

It could have been me

If I wanted to

F#m

But it wasn't

A

D

So we'll have to face the truth

E

These walls that we climb

D

Are hard to recognize

E

D

They fall when I say your name

F#m

Here we go

A

Fast and slow

D

On the big chair

F#m

But we don't know

A

Where we're going

D

On the big chair

Fm

A

Time to pull the shutters down

Fm

E

Breakin' clouds don't make a sound

F#m A D

F#m A D

F#m

Here we go

A

Fast and slow

D

On the big chair

F#m

But we don't know

A

Where we're going

D

On the big chair

F#m

A

D

Big chair, big chair, big chair...