

Chinese Blues

Travis

Dm C G
The snow was falling on his shoulders by the side of the road

Dm
And he watched as the sun went down

C
Falling on the building

G
Swallowing the children

Dm
It s the gun in your back
It s the heart attack

C G
It s the way you look back before you step out

Dm C G
In time to see the number of the bus that s running you down

Gm F C
A million lonely people with their head in the sand

Gm F C
Trying to make some sense of what they don t understand

Gm F C Bb
Waiting on somebody just to give them a hand, Heyyyy

Dm C G
You re designed to fall apart on the day the warrenty ends

Dm
And you try but you just can t stop

C
Running round in circles

G
Knocking over hurdles

Dm
It s the knife in your back
It s the heart attack

C G
It s the way you look back before you step out

Dm C G
In time to see the shadow of the one that s cutting you down

Dm G
The snow was falling on his shoulders by the side of the road

Bb A
And he watched as the lights came on below

Dm
And the children were sleeping

G
And the women were weeping

Bb A

There was nobody keeping him here
