

Strangers On A Train
Travis

Intro: C

verse 1

C

You re not listening

C

And all my words are lost but found

C

We both want something new

C

I ll take the sky you keep the ground

F

We can bend and we can break

C

We can learn to give and take

Am

G

Do you have the friends to start a war

F

What bridges should I burn

C

Give me a chance to live and learn

Am

G

G

There s still so much left to explore

C

We were moving so fast for so long

C

Never taking any hits from no one

Am

F

And you ve got running on the brain

C

Still running from the place where the sun dies

C

Take a track to the city where our hearts lie

Am

F

Though our journey s still the same

C

We re just strangers on a train

verse 2

C

Close your restless eyes
 C Am F
 I ve seen them wander far too much
 C
 It s hard to sympathize
 C Am F
 when it s not me who s losing touch
 F
 Is there a joke you need to make?
 C
 Is there a smile you need to fake?
 Am G
 You cut so deep, you hit the bone
 F
 Is there a flame you need to light?
 C
 Is there a neck you need to bite?
 Am G G
 what does it take to guide you home?

C
 We were moving so fast for so long
 C
 Never taking any hits from no one
 Am F
 And you ve got running on the brain
 C
 Still running from the place where the sun dies
 C
 Take a track to the city where our hearts lie
 Am F
 Though our journey s still the same
 C C Am F
 We re just strangers on a train

Bridge

C
 If you got love, hold it high
 C
 Hold your heart up in the sky
 Am
 Let it shine
 F
 Let it shine

C
 If you got love, sing it loud
 C
 Hold your heart up in the crowd
 Am

Let it shine

F

Let it shine

C

If you got love, set it free

C

Hold your heart in front of me

Am

Let it shine

F

Let it shine

C

If you got love, hold it high

C

Hold your heart up in the sky

Am

Let it shine

F

Let it shine

C

C

Just let it shine

Am

F

Let it shine

C

C

just let it shine

Am

F

just let it shine
