C/F D-dim/Bb Dm/A

What became of you and I?

What became of you and I?

What became of you and I?

You were never meant to be heard of

You were never meant to be heard of

Words that you waste on my ears today

Seem to come back when I look away

The sounds of a girl who will never stay

Repeat in my mind every single day

What became of you and I?

What became of you and I?

What became of you and I?

What became of you and I?

You were never meant to be heard of

You were never meant to be heard of

What will you get from a love so true

Never you mind it aint nothing new

You sit so still, but you got no clue

Whatever I feel it aint all for you

For You
For You

What became of you and I?
What became of you and I?
What became of you and I?
What became of you and I?
You were never meant to be heard of
You were never meant to be heard of
