my name.

C

C

We ll store up in the autumn months and party in the spring,

F

F

We ll lay away those summer days on white sand by the sea,

Am

G

F

We ll fall asleep when the snow begins to come down.

Am G F F

[Verse 2]

C C
Then the day will come when her stomach starts to grow,
F F
We ll freak about the million things we don t already know,
Am G F
We ll give them names after my favourite hockey players... if it s ok.

C C
Their cribs will fill our morning but by noon they ll be in school,
F F
Their teenage years will come and go and by the rising of the moon they ll settle down,
Am G F
With someone else who shares their name now.

C C F F
Am G F F
(x2 slowing down and holding on F....)

[Verse 3]

C C
And when our shoulders like old wooden fences lean towards the ground,
F F
The grandkids grow like rocketships, shootinâ€™™ to the clouds,
Am G F
Her hair is grey but her blue eyes never shone so proud.
C C
When the Lord comes calling and we have to say goodbye,
F F
I ll rest her in the ground if I m the one whoâ€™s left behind,
Am G
Whisper goodnight wait patiently for
F
My white light...

C C F F
...to come. mmm-hmmm
Am G F F
...To come.
