INTRO

VERSE:

She grew up without a father
Never knew how to love a man
She s addicted to breaking hearts and moving on
So I never really stood a chance
And the sparkle in her eyes
They shine so flawless I m amazed
Blinded by an angel s face
It s the sweetest poison in one kiss
And now you got the venom in your veins
Believing everything her lips say

CHORUS:

Pretty girls lie
Lipstick and a smile
Makes you want to believe
But pretty girls hide
Pain so deep inside
She can t even see
Pretty girls lie
Pretty girls lie

VERSE:

Got you walking through a maze, yeah
Eyes closed tryin to find your way
Got your arm s reached out
Hoping she gon make a sound
But she don t wanna be found
Cause she ll tell you come anyway

And you know the difference
From the real or the fake
Devil in the chest, but an angel in the face
Never ever yours but it s only for the day
Is it real when you calling my name?

CHORUS:

Pretty girls lie
Lipstick and a smile
Makes you want to believe
But pretty girls hide
Pain so deep inside
She can t even see
Pretty girls lie

BRIDGE:

I want to give the benefit of the doubt
The best in her I wanna help bring it out
I know something s missing inside
If she let me I can show the proof
Girl there ain t no running from the truth
She says I ll be there
Girl don t just tell me what I wanna hear

CHORUS:

Pretty girls lie
Lipstick and a smile
Makes you want to believe
But pretty girls hide
Pain so deep inside
She can t even see
Pretty girls lie

OUTRO:

Such a pretty face and
She can t find her way
Such a beautiful girl
Lost in the world
Can t trust what she says
After so many break-ups and make-ups in life
Could ve been making love and end up in a fight
Don t tell me why
Pretty girls lie
