B F#
 It was a day like today,
 Abm E
 a sunday afternoon when they took you away
 B F# Eb
 down to Hades in a shopping trolley
 E
 with a magazine and a suitcase
 B F#
 They stole your clothes
 Abm
 i took your watch
 i couldnt look you in the eye
 B F# E E
 why its always those who you love the most you criticise

Chorus

B F# Abm E
 Oh no stranger your just like me,
 B F# Abm E
 these things happen we were children in the mid 90 s
 B F# Abm E
 Oh no stranger your just like me,
 B F# Abm E
 we get older they get younger it was you or me

Interlude: B F# E Eb x2

Verse 2

B                F#                Abm                E
We stood there throwing ice cream in your hair how i solemnly swear
B                F#                Eb (6th)    E (7th) its the thing in life i regret the most... leaving you standing there
B                F#                Abm
And if you asked me id pull my eyes out
and when i woke up blind
B                F#                Eb (6th)
if you forgave i would sleep at night E (7th)
knowing i d led a good life.

Chorus

B                F#                Abm                E
Oh no stranger your just like me,
      B                F#                Abm                E
these things happen we were children in the mid 90 s
B                F#                Abm                E
Oh no stranger your just like me,
      B                F#                Abm                E
we get older they get younger it was you or me
