LOOK AT THE MOON
by Trip Shakespeare off the album LULU

Note: This may be close but not perfect. The bridge section is probably pretty accurate, but doesnt sound very good unless you are listening to or playing the solo, which I have not tabbed. There were some places where it was a toss-up between G and Em, and the passing (D) noted in a couple of places might be in there but Im not positive.

Intro: Look at the moon
B C# G#m C#
Look at the moon
 F# C# G#m
Verse1: Would you look in my eyes for a moment
F# C# G#m
Let me see if I can say so long
F# C# G#m
Funny I cant smile at the freedom that I wanted
E G#m C#
And I cant smile and try to lead you on

 F# C# G#m
Verse2: Would you mind if I cry for a moment
F# C# G#m
Cause I loved the days when you were mine
F# C# G#m (C#) Ebm
Honey I cant lie you wont see me any longer
B C# F#
Let me kiss your sweet lips one more time

B C# G#m Ebm
Chorus: Look at the moon
B C# G#m F#
Look at the moon
B C#

Hey now you know that I

F# Ebm

Dont want you to see me cry
