

Army Recruitment Song

Tripod

Tripod - Army Recruitment Song

Transcribed by Rob
rebowman@utas.edu.au

Am(palm muted. Got that same beat as on the real adds)

Spoken:

Joining today s modern defense force is hard enough. First you have to choose:
Navy, Airfoce, Army, Kiss Army, Salvation Army, Army of Darkness, but even when you ve chosen, you have to make the grade.

(All chords palm muted for first verse)

Verse:

Am F

I m way too skinny for the Army?

Am G

Way too slender for the job?

Am F

What can I do if my country doesn t want me cause

Am G

My talents only stretch to mini golf?

Am F

I m way too uncool for the Army

Am G

All that running through car tyres

Am F

I guess that would come in handy if you invaded

Am G

A country whose terrain was all car tyres.

Chorus:(clean)

C

But I m skinny and unclever

Am

Maybe now more than ever

F G

The technology has caught up with me

Am

If wars have gone all electronic

C

I could fight them with my joystick

F G

As long as they bring pizza to me

C

Then I could be in the Army.

Verse 2:

Am F

It s not tricky to imagine

C G Am

Me in a bunker at a screen

F

Controlling reconaissance robots

C

Maybe mine detecting robots

G

Even robots who run through tyres

Chorus:

C

But I m skinny and unclever

Am

Maybe now more than ever

F G

The technology has caught up with me

Am

If wars have gone all electronic

C

I could fight them with my joystick

F G

While watching McLeod s Daughters on TV

A#

Then I could be in the Army.

Verse 3:

F

I was never good at Pacman

C A#

But at Defender I d light up the skies

F

I was never good at Frogger

C A#

It s much to much like hopping all the tyres

F

And if I don t get in the Army

C A#

I could become an evil mastermind

F

Live in an underwater tower

C A#

And wearing shiny skivvies all the time

C

That would be fine

Chorus:

C

Skinny and unclever

Am

Maybe now more than ever

F G

The technology has caught up with me, (If I could make up my mind)

Am

If wars have gone all electronic

C

I could fight them with my joystick

F

G

As long as they bring pizza to me

C

Then I could be in the Army_____.