MR. RADIO (by Roderick Taylor; recorded by Trisha Yearwood)

Am Am G/A G/A Am Am G/A G/A
[intro]

Am Am Am Am
Oh, what a summer day when we carried the radio home
Am Am Am Am
Bringing him in off of the truck and the dogs wouldn t leave us alone
(G/B) C C D D Am Am Am Am
Mister Radio, you come down here to keep us company

Am Am Am Am
We listened in a room through the miles and the miles of night
Am Am Am Am
Deep in the heart of the Bible Belt in the gold of the radio light
(G/B) C C D D Am Am Am Am
Mister Radio, you come down here to keep us company

Am Am Am Am
And itUs hard days out in the field, and the crow s in the high treetop
Am Am Am Am
If a man s away from his home all day, his chickens might fall to the fox
(G/B) C C D D Am Am Am Am
Mister Radio, what can you do about that, oh ho
F - C D - G - E Am Am F - C D - G - E Am Am Am Am
[instrumental]

Am Am Am Am
And you can take me down to a river town where the citizens dance till dawn
Am Am Am Am
They dance so close, it s a sin almost, the way they carry on
(G/B) C C D D Am Am Am Am
Mister Radio, I never dreamed you could

Am Am Am Am

And it s miles of the careless touch of a tired hand in time
 Am Am Am Am
 When evening fell, I heard a stranger sell dreams that were never mine
 (G/B) C C D D Am Am Am Am
 Mister Radio, you come down here to keep us company
 C C D D Am Am Am Am
 You come down here to keep us company
F - C D - G - E Am Am F - C D - G - E Am Am Am Am G/A.
 [instrumental]
