MR. RADIO (by Roderick Taylor; recorded by Trisha Yearwood)

Bm Bm A/A A/A Bm Bm A/A A/B
[intro]

Bm Bm Bm Bm
Oh, what a summer day when we carried the radio home
Bm Bm Bm Bm
Bringing him in off of the truck and the dogs wouldnt t leave us alone
(A/B) D D E E Bm Bm Bm Bm
Mister Radio, you come down here to keep us company

Bm Bm Bm Bm
We listened in a room through the miles and the miles of night
Bm Bm Bm Bm
Deep in the heart of the Bible Belt in the gold of the radio light
(A/B) D D E E Bm Bm Bm Bm
Mister Radio, you come down here to keep us company

Bm Bm Bm Bm
And itUs hard days out in the field, and the crow s in the high treetop
Bm Bm Bm Bm
If a man s away from his home all day, his chickens might fall to the fox
(A/B) D D E E Bm Bm Bm Bm
Mister Radio, what can you do about that, oh ho
G - D E - A - F# Bm Bm G - D E - A - F# Bm Bm Bm Bm
[instrumental]

Bm Bm Bm Bm
And you can take me down to a river town where the citizens dance till dawn
Bm Bm Bm Bm
They dance so close, it s a sin almost, the way they carry on
(A/B) D D E E Bm Bm Bm Bm
Mister Radio, I never dreamed you could
Bm Bm Bm Bm

And it s miles of the careless touch of a tired hand in time

Bm Bm Bm Bm

When evening fell, I heard a stranger sell dreams that were never mine

Mister Radio, you come down here to keep us company

D D E E Bm Bm Bm Bm

You come down here to keep us company

G - D E - A - F# Bm Bm G - D E - A - F# Bm Bm Bm Bm A/A.

[instrumental]
